

Michigan Association for Justice
People's Law School
2011 Fall Semester in Lansing

What: The Michigan Association for Justice People's Law School

Where: Thomas M. Cooley Law School, 217 South Capitol Avenue, Lansing, MI

(Please note the change in location to a different floor than previous years):

Inner Temple, 4th Floor

When: 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., Tuesdays, September 6, 2011 through October 18, 2011.

Cost: Only $25 for the semester!

Learn about the law from the experts!

Since 1978, the Michigan Association for Justice People's Law School has educated thousands of Michigan residents regarding the legal system that governs our lives. People's Law Schools all over the state have featured some of the most well-known attorneys and legal experts in Michigan.

The People's Law School Faculty includes justices, judges, elected officials, seasoned attorneys and law professors.

People's Law School classes typically include a lecture (with a short break) followed by a question and answer session. Each participant also receives a comprehensive Student Handbook that contains outlines of the materials the speakers will be presenting.

Please note that there is no reserved parking for People's Law School students. There is public parking on the street and paid parking near the school.

Seating is limited, so please register as soon as possible by visiting www.michiganjustice.org.

If you have any questions, please contact Teri Lynne at (517) 394-7500 or email:
tlgriffes@sinasdramis.com.

The People's Law School is brought to you by:

THE THOMAS M. COOLEY

LAW SCHOOL

*In corde hominum
est anima legis*
1972

SINAS, DRAMIS, BRAKE,
BOUGHTON & MCINTYRE, P.C.